

Screed – Cheltenham Race Course

Project details:

The Centaur building provides facilities for both racing and non-racing functions. As well as National Hunt racing Cheltenham is a major provider of exhibition and conferencing in the West of England. The building provides exhibition and arena facilities for 5000 people.

Lyttag® 4/8mm lightweight aggregate was used for lightweight roof screed to provide weight reduction within the structure.

Project:

Cheltenham Race Course

Date:

2002 - 2003

Client:

Cheltenham Race Course

Architect:

Stephen Limbrick / Maxim Harper

Structural Engineer:

Bobrowski & Partners

Main Contractor:

Moss Construction

