

Screed – Swansea Leisure Centre

Project details:

Lytag® lightweight aggregate was used for the no fines screed / bulk fill to shape and create new curves, walls and different levels to the pool areas.

The refurbished leisure centre has given Swansea a new indoor water park containing Britain's first indoor surfing centre providing waves all-day, every day, and one of the country's largest and best health and fitness centres.

Project:
Swansea Leisure Centre

Date:
2006 - 2008

Client:
Swansea District Council

Architect:
Powell Dobson

Structural Engineer:
ARUP

Main Contractor:
Laing O'Rourke

